OUR ROLE

Upwardly Global is the first and longest-serving organization focused on helping immigrant, refugee and asylee professionals rebuild their careers in the United States.

The current global environment has created a moment of opportunity for Upwardly Global’s community to meaningfully advance our mission and vision.

Upwardly Global has worked with almost 20,000 immigrant and refugee professionals and supported them in finding family supporting jobs. We have an obligation to scale this work by sharing best practices on how best to integrate this invisibilized population in our workforce.

Our role in the policy realm is to bring the stories of un- and underemployed immigrants and refugees to life, ensure that policy and implementation are connected, and inspire decisive action among critical civil society actors.

In 2022, we can meaningfully open opportunities for immigrant and refugee professionals by lifting up stories, thought leadership and advocacy, specifically addressing needs that have arisen from recent trends:

- Economic - Labor shortages from the COVID-19 pandemic have driven demand in key industries where immigrant/refugee professionals bring strengths.

- Diplomatic - The recent Afghan refugee crisis has broadened support for integration of this population across businesses, top-level government/military, and the general public.

- Social - Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DE&I) commitments and awareness of the need for and value of diversity are impacting hiring at mid/high-level roles and major companies’ staffing strategies.
ECONOMIC

Labor shortages from the COVID-19 pandemic have driven demand in key industries where immigrant/refugee professionals bring strengths.

Relevant industries include education services, healthcare, and professional/scientific fields.

Upwardly Global works to connect work-authorized immigrants with employment that matches their education and professional skills, enabling them to meet the demands of labor markets and employers.

- Research - Support initiatives that facilitate better understanding of barriers that hinder immigrant economic integration and shine a light on solutions, such as the Bridging Opportunities for New Americans Act.
• Training - As workforce development programs funded by the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act and Build Back Better initiatives take shape, ensure consideration for immigrants in high-skill fields.

• Licensing Reform - Encourage reform that eases immigrants’ ability to relaunch careers in heavily licensed fields such as healthcare. Ensure policy makers engage communities as they create and implement reform.

---

DIPLOMATIC

The recent Afghan refugee crisis has broadened support for integration of this population across businesses, top-level government/military, and the general public.

Upwardly Global supports legislation and administrative policies which would enable Afghan evacuees to work and remain in the U.S. permanently. Workforce integration is the key to successful inclusion and contributions of newcomers.

• Afghan support - In tandem with federal agencies and DHS, Upwardly Global favors streamlining services and supports the Afghan Adjustment Act, which would allow this population to continue to live and work in the U.S. and provide a path to citizenship.

• Taskforce on New Americans - Upwardly Global favors the formation of a national taskforce to build on the strong interagency collaborations + NGO and corporate partnerships to coordinate services and support for Afghans and other refugee populations moving forward.

- Workforce training - Upwardly Global is working with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and the Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) to ensure adequate support for Afghan newcomers to help in finding work that fits their experience and helps them to fulfill their potential.

SOCIAL

Eight-in-ten Americans view racial and ethnic diversity in the workplace as at least somewhat important

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>% of U.S. adults who say it is extremely/very important</th>
<th>% of U.S. adults who say it is somewhat important</th>
<th>% of U.S. adults who say it is not too/not at all important</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>53%</td>
<td>27%</td>
<td>18%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

And many cite diverse perspectives and equal opportunity as important reasons to increase workplace diversity

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>% of U.S. adults who say the following are important reasons for increasing racial and ethnic diversity in the workplace</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Provides other perspectives that contribute to organizational success</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gives people an equal opportunity to succeed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Makes good business sense because it increases supply of potential workers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DE&I commitments and awareness of the need for and value of diversity are impacting hiring at mid/high-level roles and major companies’ staffing strategies. Several major pieces of “inclusive” legislation provide support for workforce development programs and diversity initiatives. Upwardly Global continues to:

- ENCOURAGE consideration of immigrant businesses and the role of immigrant employees in minority businesses through the newly established Minority Business Development Agency.

- BUILD coalitions among groups that represent immigrants, refugees and people of color to understand intersecting identities increase representation across key sectors of the economy.

- ENGAGE with companies that are eager to bring in more diverse hires, including at the mid- and high-skill levels, and to support hiring and management practices that create more open and representative workplaces.

---